

ASSIGNMENT OF RIGHT OF ACTION
TO ENFORCE RIGHT OF SUBROGATION

The United States has a statutory right of subrogation to compensation for death payable under circumstances creating a legal liability on a person to pay damages, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 8131.

I, Josephine Forcum, surviving spouse and heir-at-law of John H. Forcum, hereby assign and transfer any right of action that I may have to enforce liability or any right I may have to share in money or other property received from Eric C. Beckett as a result of the fatal car accident that occurred on January 30, 2001, between Eric C. Beckett and John H. Forcum, to the United States of America. This Assignment shall be deemed effective as of the date I, Josephine Forcum, became entitled to receive Federal Employee Compensation Benefits.

This Assignment is binding upon Josephine Forcum, her successors and assigns.
