Re: Request for Exclusion

The Lubrizol Corporation ("Lubrizol") and its subsidiary Noveon, Inc. ("Noveon") have received and reviewed the Notice of Class Action Settlement with Bayer and Fairness Hearing (the "Notice") concerning the Urethane Antitrust Litigation — Polyester Polyol Cases (the "Litigation"). Both Lubrizol and Noveon wish to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class, as that term is defined in the Notice. Accordingly, Lubrizol and Noveon hereby submit this Request for Exclusion from the Settlement Class.

Please note that Noveon was formerly the Performance Materials Segment of The B.F. Goodrich Company. On February 28, 2001, the Performance Materials Segment became PMD Group Inc., and subsequently changed its name to Noveon, Inc. In June 2004, Noveon became a wholly owned subsidiary of Lubrizol.

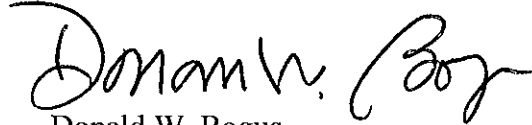

The Notice requires Lubrizol and Noveon to identify the addresses used by Lubrizol and Noveon. Accordingly, I have attached to this Request for Exclusion a list of all of the U.S. locations for Lubrizol and Noveon. However, please note that Noveon has a centralized purchasing structure, and most if not all of Noveon's purchases of the materials that are the subject of the Litigation (the "Materials") were made through Noveon's headquarters address at 9911 Brecksville Road, Cleveland, Ohio 44141-3247.

With regard to Lubrizol, Materials were also purchased and delivered to two Lubrizol facilities located at 41 Tidal Road, Deer Park, Texas 77536 and 155 Freedom Road, Painesville, Ohio 44077.
