SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant is prohibited from possessing or purchasing a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon.
2. The defendant shall immediately provide the probation officer with access to any and all requested financial information, to include executing any release of information forms necessary for the probation office to obtain and/or verify said financial information.
3. The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open, or attempt to open, additional lines of credit, without the prior approval of the probation officer. The defendant shall also execute any release of information forms necessary for the probation officer to monitor the defendant's compliance with the credit restrictions.
4. The defendant shall participate in an approved program for mental health, which may include psychological counseling, and share in the costs, based on the ability to pay.
5. *The defendant shall be placed on home detention for an additional period of six (6) months, to commence within 30 days of this Judgment Order. During the term of supervision the defendant shall remain at his place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation officer. As instructed by the probation officer, the defendant may be required to maintain a telephone at his place of residence without call forwarding, caller ID, call waiting, portable cordless telephones, answering machines/service, or any other feature or service which would interfere with the operation of electrical monitoring equipment for the above period. The defendant may be required to wear an electronic monitoring device, which may include Global Positioning System and/or Random Tracking, and follow electronic monitoring procedures specified by the probation officer. Additionally, the probation officer may restrict the defendant from certain areas within the community, and the defendant must comply with these restrictions. The defendant shall assist in the costs of home confinement, based on the ability to pay, at the direction of the probation officer.
6. *The defendant shall cooperate with the probation office and counsel to determine if there is an excess restitution amount paid, and if so, then said excess shall be returned to Mr. Runde.
