

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF KANSAS

Elaine N. Toland,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 06-2068-JWL

Case No. 05-2409-JWL

John E. Potter, Postmaster General,
United States Postal Service,

Defendant.

ORDER NUNC PRO TUNC

On June 8, 2007, the court issued a memorandum and order granting defendant's motion to dismiss two discrete claims and for summary judgment as to all claims. In that memorandum and order, the court inadvertently omitted one word from the first full sentence appearing on page 11 of the order. That sentence should read: "The Circuit does not consider 'a mere inconvenience or an alteration of job responsibilities to be an adverse employment action.' Piercy, 480 F.3d at 1203 (quoting Sanchez v. Denver Pub. Schs., 164 F.3d 527, 532 (10th Cir. 1998))." The court hereby attaches to this order a memorandum and order that simply corrects that error and the clerk of the court is directed to substitute the attached memorandum and order for the memorandum and order that was filed on June 8, 2007 (doc. 71).

IT IS SO ORDERED this 11th day of June, 2007.
