The Tenth Circuit partially remanded this case on May 16, 2007 to permit defendant Martin to file a motion demonstrating that his failure to comply with the filing requirements of Rule 4(b)(1)(A)(i) was based on excusable neglect or good cause. After defendant Martin failed to file such motion by June 14, 2007, this court ordered him to file a motion in accordance with the Tenth Circuit's remand on or before June 29, 2007. Again, defendant Martin failed to do so.
