Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

Based on what has been presented, there are not conditions that would satisfactorily assure your appearance and protect the safety of the community.

The only reason the halfway house would be considered is if we had verifiable employment. Ms. Dyer was unable to find it and your current counsel has been unable to confirm it, so at this point in time there is no reason to consider a halfway house placement.

For the reasons of your prior record and your prior problems while released on probation, parole, or bond, you will remain in custody.
