STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

For good cause shown, the Court grants the parties' Joint Motion (doc. 7) to enter this Stipulated Protective Order.

It is stipulated and agreed by counsel for the parties to this action that the terms and conditions of this Stipulated Protective Order shall be applicable to, and govern, documents and information specifically identified below.

Plaintiff alleges he was wrongfully discharged for exercising or attempting to exercise his rights under workers' compensation laws. Plaintiff may request documents and information regarding Defendant's operation, payroll records and financial condition that are both proprietary and considered to be trade secrets. In addition, Plaintiff may request personnel documents and information regarding Defendant's employees who are not, and are not expected to be, parties to this action. Finally, Defendant is expected to request documents and information regarding Plaintiff's personal, financial, medical and mental condition, as well as Plaintiff's employment and educational records. Defendant considers its proprietary information, trade secrets, and employment records to be private and/or confidential. Plaintiff considers his personal information to be private and/or confidential. This protective order applies to all documents, as defined by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, including electronically-stored information.

For good cause shown, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

1. Designations of “CONFIDENTIAL” materials. Plaintiff shall have the right to designate as “CONFIDENTIAL” any document or information he believes, in good faith, relates to Plaintiff’s financial, medical, educational, and mental condition. Defendant shall have the right to designate as “CONFIDENTIAL” personnel records regarding non-parties, proprietary and confidential economic information, and such other similar information it deems to be confidential or proprietary.
2. Restriction on Disclosure of Designated Materials. No information or things designated “CONFIDENTIAL” shall be disclosed to any person or entity except as set forth in this Order. No person shall use any material designated “CONFIDENTIAL” for any purpose other than to assist counsel of record in the preparation and trial of this action. No copies of designated materials shall be made except by or on behalf of counsel of record for the parties to this Order.
3. Marking of Designated Materials. Documents that the parties reasonably believe are protected against unauthorized disclosure or use shall be marked by placing the legend “CONFIDENTIAL,” or an equivalent marking, on each page of the document, or, if the document consists of multiple pages that are bound together, by marking the first page of such bound document as “CONFIDENTIAL.” All documents to be so designated shall be marked prior to the provision of a physical copy thereof to the receiving party. If such documents have already been produced to the other party, the party producing such documents shall notify the other party immediately that such documents shall be marked and deemed “CONFIDENTIAL” under the terms of this Order.

To the extent not inconsistent with any other paragraph, this paragraph shall govern information that has been produced and inadvertently not initially designated “CONFIDENTIAL.” The initial failure to designate information in accordance with this Stipulated Protective Order shall not preclude the producing party, at a later date, from designating any information “CONFIDENTIAL.” The producing party may, by written notice to counsel of record for the receiving party, designate previously produced information as “CONFIDENTIAL” which it had inadvertently failed to designate as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Upon receipt of such notice, the receiving party shall promptly mark its copies of the material accordingly, shall thereafter treat the information as if it has been designated “CONFIDENTIAL,” shall restrict the disclosure or use of such information only to those persons qualified pursuant to this Order, and if such information has previously been disclosed to persons not qualified pursuant to this Order, take reasonable steps to obtain all such previously disclosed information and advise such persons to treat the designated materials confidentially as though originally so designated.

4. Access to “CONFIDENTIAL” Materials. Information designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” shall not be provided, shown, made available, or communicated in any way to any person or entity with the exception of:

- a. Counsel working on this action on behalf of any party to this action, and all assistants and stenographic and clerical employees working under the direct supervision of counsel;
- b. Any person not employed by a party who is expressly retained by a party to this Order, or any attorney described in paragraph 4(a), to assist in litigation of this action, with disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” materials only to the extent necessary to perform such work;
- c. Court reporters and any person who is author or recipient of the confidential materials of whom testimony is taken, except that such persons may be shown copies of “CONFIDENTIAL” materials only during such testimony and may not retain any “CONFIDENTIAL” materials or copies thereof;

- d. The Court or its staff in connection with the Court’s administration and adjudication of this action, the jury, and any individual retained by the parties for purposes of mediating or otherwise adjudicating Plaintiff’s claims; and
- e. Defendant’s officers, directors, and employees.

5. Undertaking of Persons Receiving Designated Materials. In no event shall any material designated “CONFIDENTIAL” be disclosed to any person, except those described in paragraphs 4(a), (c), (d), and (e), until that person has executed a written declaration in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A acknowledging he or she has read a copy of this Order and agrees to be bound thereby. In the event of depositions of third party witnesses at which “CONFIDENTIAL” information is to be shown or revealed to the deponent, the party seeking to use such information shall request that said deponent execute a written declaration in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A. Unless such a declaration is obtained, or a court order allowing disclosure is made, “CONFIDENTIAL” information shall not be disclosed to the deponent. Likewise, disclosures to individuals under paragraph 4(b) above may only be made after such individuals execute a written declaration in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A. Counsel of record shall be responsible for maintaining a file of all such declarations. The signed declarations shall be available for inspection by this Court upon good cause shown by opposing counsel.

6. Limitations Upon the Scope of Order. Nothing contained in this Order shall affect the right of the designating party to disclose, or use for any purpose, the documents or information produced by it as “CONFIDENTIAL.” This Order shall not limit or affect the rights of any party to use or disclose any information or thing that has not been obtained through, or derived as a result of, this litigation.

7. Breach of This Order. A violation of this Order may be punished by the contempt powers of the Court. In addition, a breach of the agreement attached as Exhibit A to this Order may give rise to a civil cause of action. Pursuant to the agreement of the parties to this matter, reasonable attorneys' fees and other litigation costs shall be awarded to the prevailing party in any proceeding arising out of the breach of the confidentiality provisions of this Order.

8. Duration of Order. The confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order shall remain in effect unless otherwise expressly ordered by the Court.

9. Filing Confidential Documents with the Court. In the event a party wishes to use any information identified as Confidential<sup>1</sup>, that party shall file a motion seeking leave to file such information and used therein under seal. In the event the court grants the party's motion, such information shall be maintained under seal by the court and shall be treated as Confidential.<sup>2</sup>

D. Kan. Rule 5.4.6 governing sealed documents currently requires conventional filing for all documents ordered to be placed under seal in civil cases until the Electronic Filing System "has adequate confidentiality procedures for sealed documents." Pursuant to Standing Order 07-03<sup>3</sup>, as of July 19, 2007, the District of Kansas has adopted such adequate procedures for the electronic filing of sealed documents.

Standing Order 07-0322 provides in part:

[I]n civil cases, a party filing a motion for leave to file documents under seal shall file that motion electronically under seal in the filing system. The motion for leave to file under seal shall attach as sealed exhibits the document(s) the party wishes to be filed under seal. . . . Finally, the party shall provide the motion and document(s) it wishes to be filed under seal to all other parties in the case. If the motion for leave to file under seal is granted, the assigned judge will enter electronically an order authorizing the filing of the document(s) under seal. The assigned judge will also direct the clerk's office to grant to all attorneys who have entered an appearance in that case . . . the ability to view sealed documents in that case . . . . The filing party shall then file its document(s) electronically under seal.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the parties' Joint Motion for Protective Order (doc. 7) is granted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 5th day of February, 2008, at Kansas City, Kansas.
