v.

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIALDERRICK L. LASLEY*Defendant*

Case Number: 08-20082-01-JWL-DJW

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.

Part I - Findings of Fact

- ☐ (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a (federal offense) (state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed) that is
- ☐ a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).
- ☐ an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.
- ☐ an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in _____
- ☐ a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f) (1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.
- ☐ (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.
- ☐ (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding (1).
- ☐ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an)other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

Alternative Findings (A)

- ☐ (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense
- ☐ for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in _____
- ☐ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).
- ☐ (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

Alternative Findings (B)

- ☐ (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
- ☐ (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

Part III - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

There are a series of factors I have to look at to determine whether there are conditions that would justify releasing you.

First is the nature and circumstances of the offense charged, including whether it involves a controlled substance. Obviously it does, so that is a negative.

The next factor is the weight of the evidence. There has been a Grand Jury Indictment, so that is a negative.

The next factor is your character, physical and mental condition. There is nothing there that is a problem, so that would be positive.

Family ties are positive as evidenced by your mother's appearance here.

Employment is negative because you don't show any employment.

The next factor is financial resources. There is no indication you have substantial resources that would enable you to flee, so that is neutral.

Length of residence in the community is positive.

The next factor is past conduct, which includes history relating to drug or alcohol abuse, criminal history, and record concerning appearance at court proceedings. This is a problem because you had numerous contacts with courts as a juvenile.

The next factor is whether at the time of the current offense you were on probation, parole, or other release pending trial. It does not appear that you were.

The final factor is the nature and seriousness of the danger to the community that would be posed by your release. Dealing crack cocaine is a substantial danger to the community.

Considering all these factors together, and primarily the problem that within the last year you have failed to appear in two cases and failed to appear at the door when the Marshals tried to get you to come out, you are going to remain detained.
