

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF KANSAS

JEAN BROWN,

Plaintiff,

v.

MICHAEL J. ASTRUE,
Commissioner of Social Security,

Defendant.

CIVIL ACTION

No. 09-2464-CM

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

The present dispute involves a request for review of defendant's denial of benefits. Pending before this court is Defendant's Motion to Reverse and Remand and for Entry of Final Judgment (Doc. 14).

Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), "[t]he court shall have power to enter, upon the pleadings and transcript of the record, a judgment affirming, modifying or reversing the decision of the Commissioner, with or without remanding the cause for a rehearing." Defendant requests that the court reverse and remand this case to defendant for further evaluation.

The court finds that, based on defendant's arguments in its motion, and the fact that plaintiff does not object, this case should be reversed and remanded for further consideration. The court's order shall be considered a final judgment. See, e.g., Shalala v. Schaeffer, 509 U.S. 292, 297–98 (1993).

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Defendant's Motion to Reverse and Remand and for Entry of Final Judgment (Doc. 14) is granted. The above-entitled case is reversed and remanded for further agency review pursuant to sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g).

Dated this 7th day of April, 2010 at Kansas City, Kansas.
