ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL*SHAWN L. PATTON-01

Case Number: 10-20040-02-KHV

Defendant

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.

Part I - Findings of Fact

- ☒ (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a (federal offense) (state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed) that is
- ☐ a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).
- ☐ an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.
- ☐ an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in _____ *
- ☐ a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.
- ☐ (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.
- ☐ (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding (1).
- ☐ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

Alternative Findings (A)

- ☐ (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense
- ☐ for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in _____
- ☐ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).
- ☐ (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

Alternative Findings (B)

- ☒ (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
- ☒ (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

Part III - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

There is a series of factors I have to look at to determine whether there are conditions of release that will reasonably assure your appearance and protect the safety of the community.

The first factor is the nature and circumstances of the offense charged, including whether the offense is a crime involving a firearm, and it did involve a firearm, so that is a negative.

The next factor is the weight of the evidence. There has been a Grand Jury Indictment, so that is a probable cause determination, which is a negative.

The next factor is your personal characteristics, which include your physical and mental condition. There is nothing in the reports or the proffer that indicates a problem.

Your family ties would be positive.

Your employment is negative because it doesn't appear you have been employed much this year.

The next factor is your financial resources. There are no indications of substantial resources that would enable you to flee, so that is a positive.

Your length of residence in the community is neutral.

Your community ties are positive.

The next factor is your past conduct, which includes history relating to drug or alcohol abuse, criminal history, and record concerning appearances to court proceedings. It is a problem because as you are fully aware, you do have these convictions, the last one being in 2008, and when you were convicted and released on these, and you availed to comply with conditions of release or with probations, so that is a negative.

The next issue is whether at the time of the current offense or arrest you were on probation or parole. It appears that you were not on parole at the time of this offense.

Considering all these factors together, including the presumption and the sentence you face, so it doesn't that there are conditions of release that I believe you can comply with. You will remain detained.
