ROBERT E. WAGER, JR.,) Defendant.)

ORDER

NOW on this 16th day of December, 2011, the above-entitled matter comes before the Court upon the motion of counsel for the accused, Robert E. Wager, Jr., for an order granting one (1) week additional time to file motions herein. The Court, after reviewing the motion and being fully advised in the premises finds that there exists good cause for the motion, and that the motion should therefore be sustained.

The Court finds that additional time is needed because defense counsel has diligently been working on the motions but the issues are novel to counsel, and additional time is needed to complete the research and preparation of the motions.

The Court further finds that the prosecutor has no objection to the motion.

The Court further finds that failure to grant the extension would result in a miscarriage of justice and deny the defendant due process.

The Court finds that the period of delay resulting from the additional time granted pursuant to this Order shall be excludable time as provided for in 18 U.S.C. 3161(h)(7) in that the ends of justice served by the granting of such motion outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the accused, Robert E. Wager, Jr., shall have additional time up to and including December 22, 2011 to file motions in the above-entitled action, and the government shall have until January 4, 2012 to file responses. The hearing on said motions is hereby rescheduled to January 11, 2012 at 11:00 a.m. The period of delay resulting from such continuance shall be excludable time as provided for by the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. 3161(h)(7).
