Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

Mr. Luis Gerardo-Montenegro, there are two important questions here, one, whether I can set conditions that will protect the community and assure your appearance and then I'd have to have confidence that you are going to comply with those conditions. The problem in your case is you don't have any employment, and you haven't had any employment in quite a while and your only source of income is the selling of methamphetamine. It doesn't make sense for me to release you back to the community if your only reliable source of employment is distributing drugs. Under these circumstances with both the guns and drugs and the involvement of numerous transactions, I don't feel there are any conditions that I could set, that I'd have confidence that you will comply with. So you will remain detained.
