Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

Mr. Orr, there are a series of factors that I have to look at to determine rather there are conditions I think that would insure your appearance and the safety of the community. The problem is when I review your history, not only did you have numerous convictions for an extended period of time, you currently have a difficult time complying with conditions when you are either on pretrial or supervised released. So I think that history outweighs your good intentions so, your will remain detained.
