CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Magistrate Angel Mitchell,

This is part of an ongoing email exchange between my previous counsel and I, between the dates of Feb. 13th and Feb. 26th of this year, that caused me to believe he was cancelling his representation of me, which I believed, automatically included cancelling the mediation also. I had every intention in going to the mediation.

Good Morning,

As you may recall, your case was set for a court-ordered mediation this morning at 9:30 am. I am here and prepared to represent you. Mr. James is here along with representatives from Olive Garden's insurer and their attorneys. It is my understanding from their attorney that Olive Garden is here with the intention of making a good faith effort to explore a resolution to your case. However, that discussion cannot occur unless you appear and participate.

As I mentioned in my voicemail moments ago, your correspondence on Friday indicated that you still planned on attending today. If that is no longer the case, please let me know as soon as possible so that I might let Mr. James and the Defendant know that they need not wait any longer and they can return to Wichita and Chicago respectively.

If you do plan on attending, please let me know when you are expected to arrive.

Regards,

As for the mediation on February 25, I understand that you intend to be present, but you will not participate beyond that. I do not believe that satisfies the requirements of the Court's Order to mediate and may result in sanctions.

[REDACTED]

It appears that you no longer want our firm to continue representing you and based on our fundamental disagreement on how to best prosecute your case, I do not believe it is possible for us to effectively represent you moving forward.

Please confirm that you have discharged our firm so that I may inform the Court.

In the interim, we will prepare a copy of your file, which we will deliver to you in a manner of your choosing so that you may obtain alternate counsel. I have also attached a copy of the Court's Scheduling Order. Please note, you will be responsible for meeting each of these deadlines whether you have secured new counsel or not. Failure to comply with the deadlines contained in the Scheduling Order could result in limitations on the admissibility of evidence and/or sanctions, including entry of judgment in favor of the Defendant.

I wish you the best of luck in your recovery.

Regards,

Joshua Scott

Ms. Anderson,

The Court has now entered its scheduling order, which contains extremely compressed timelines for discovery. In the interim, we are still set for mediation at my office on February 25th at 9:30. Sly James will serve as our mediator.
